> Both boxers are in prime condition for the bout. Each man has trained faithfully, as each recognizes that in the other he has an opponent worthy of his steel. Sullivan will train in Chicago until to-morrow night, when he will leave for this city and arrive here early Wednesday morning. Schreck is training in St. Louis, where he so decisively defeated Jim Scanlan, the Australan champion, last week, and will reach Indianapolis to-morrow afternoon. The six-round contest between Beverly Howard, of this city, and Bob Fanning, of Frankfort, is attracting great attention. The men are both fast colored middleweights, who have reputations of being able to stand the gaff and the bout promises to be interesting. Nudi Rush and Monk

Enoch, both of Indianapolis, will be in the first four-round preliminary, and a local boxer will be pitted against Kid Marbell.
